

A hearty meal before the war

THE Ryder Cup golfers and their WAGS dined out in style last night at the tournament's Gala Dinner.

The bash took place at the City West Hotel in Dublin and guests enjoyed the all-star treatment.

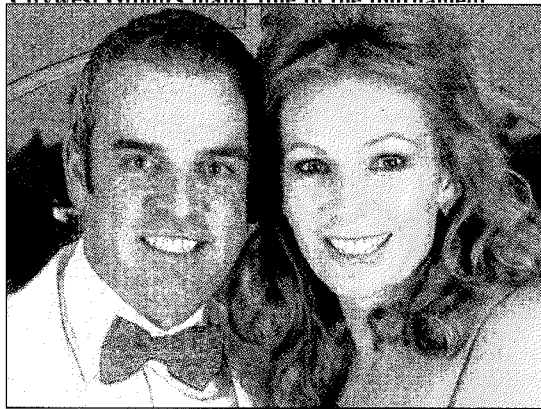

Stunning Elin Nordegren, wife of Tiger Woods, and the other WAGs sashayed down the red carpet to the sound of the Artane Boys' Band.

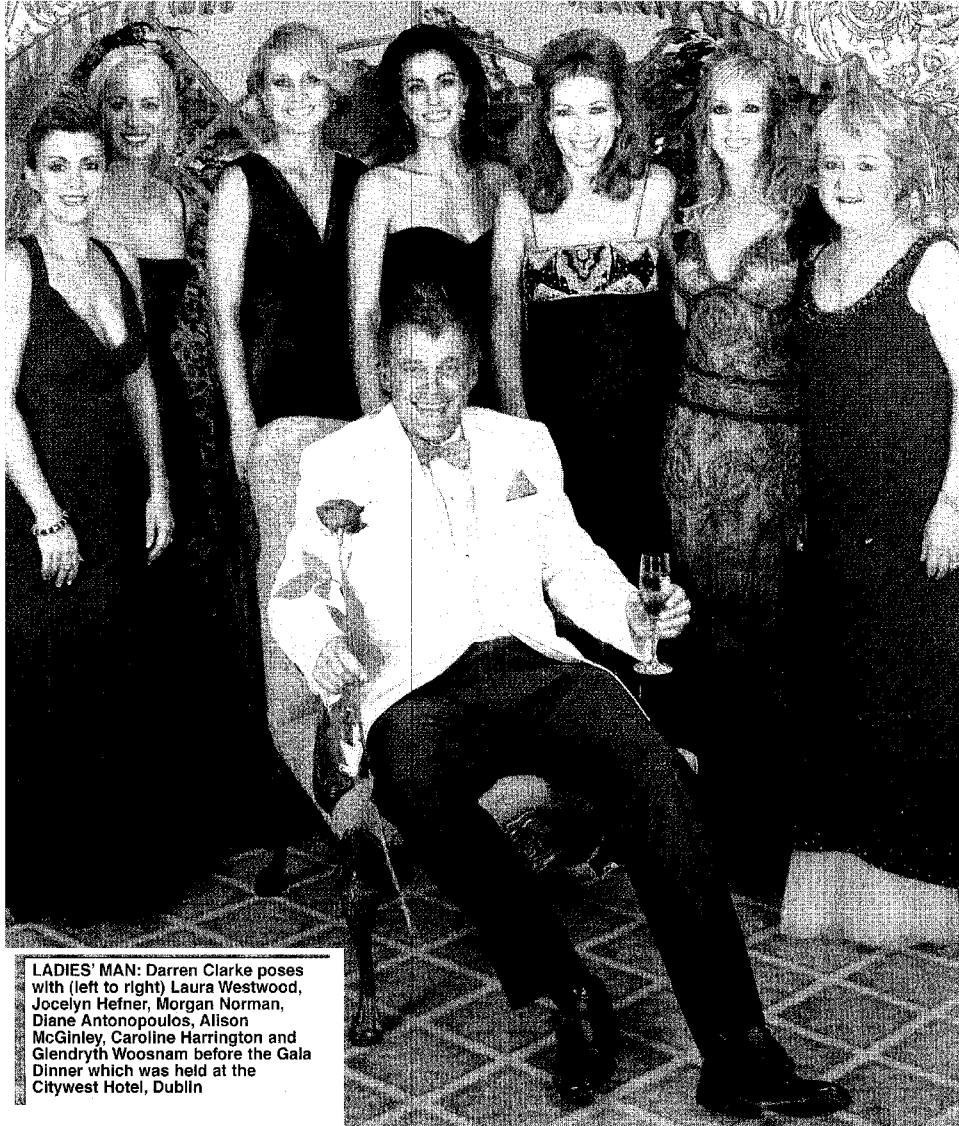

And none other than Van Morrison provided the entertainment at the bash, which was attended by a number of high profile guests.

Menu

The golfers tucked into a sumptuous menu of Wexford rack of lamb with wild mushroom cream, swede gratin and vegetables.

Last night Citywest's millionaire owner Jim Mansfield beamed: "The Ryder Cup Gala Dinner was a great success and we are all very proud of the Citywest Group's major role in the tournament."
